

Observation: Identifying the Photo

Where was the photo found?

What is happening in the photo?

List the important details. Include how people are dressed.

What is the title of the photo, if any?

What is written on the back and front?

Give the photo a title and a caption.

Inference: Looking for clues

Why was the photo taken?

Who was the intended audience?

When was the photo taken?

Which details give the most information?

Does the photo illustrate a theme, historical period or event?

Questions: Evaluating the Photo

List questions you have about the photo.

Where could you find answers?